

Why do we teach phase 1 phonics?

Supports children with developing sound discrimination skills for early reading and spelling

Develops sound isolation skills for segmenting and blending

Enables children to identify single sounds

Develops memory skills to aid with sound sequencing in words

Builds reading skills through oral blending and segmenting

Builds communication

Builds vocabulary